

Ally McBeal

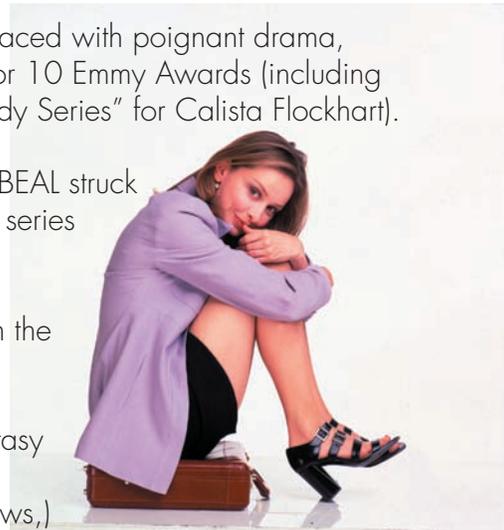

Monday 8-9pm

ALLY McBEAL is the multiple-Emmy Award-Winner, sophisticated comedy laced with poignant drama, the popular and critical success of the 1997-1998 season – nominated for 10 Emmy Awards (including “Outstanding Comedy Series” and “Outstanding Lead Actress In A Comedy Series” for Calista Flockhart).

Honored by Entertainment Weekly as “Best Ensemble” program, ALLY McBEAL struck a chord with the nation. Acclaimed for its snappy and witty dialogue, the series was also called “the best-written show on television” by TV Guide.

Harvard Grad Ally McBeal, brought to life by Calista Flockhart, who won the Golden Globe Award for Best Actress, finds comfort in the courtroom but fumbles outside the firm as a young single woman in pursuit of personal happiness. Ally’s self-doubts and anxieties spring to consciousness via fantasy sequences, voice-overs and flashbacks. Her insecurities emanate from her accidental reunion with her life-long lost love, Billy Alan Thomas (Gil Bellows,) who just happens to now share the same law firm. The second season is sure to deliver more ups and downs for Ally at work and personally.

| | | | | |
|-----------------------------|---------------------------------|-----------------------------------|-----------------------------------|---------------------------------|
| DMA HH Rating 4.3 | Adults 18+ Rating 3.4 | Adults 18-34 Rating 6.8 | Adults 25-54 Rating 5.0 | Adults 25+ Rating 3.5 |
|-----------------------------|---------------------------------|-----------------------------------|-----------------------------------|---------------------------------|

February Nielsen adjusted to May